Leviticus International Says Jesus Can Make You Gay

January 5, 2009, Alamogordo, NM

Revision Studios, famous for the "Princess Diana Gay Bible" has launched "Leviticus International," a new website which promises to help unhappy straights become gay. According to Max Mitchell, creator of the site, "Jesus Christ has the power to end heterosexuals' misery and make them gay."

Leviticus International says that straights can be "born again" as gay with the help and love of God and Jesus Christ. Joseph "Bo" Kelly, of Las Vegas, NV, a former heterosexual, claims it worked for him. According to Kelly, his compulsive attraction to women led him to two suicide attempts. "Now that I'm gay, my life is divine, and I don't mean in the biblical sense. My partner, Todd, and I share so much more than I ever did with any of my four ex wives. I thank God for taking that sinful disorder away from me."

How did it work? "I got on my knees and asked Jesus Christ to release me from the spell cast by women." It took weeks of prayer but it finally worked. Then I met Todd at church. One thing led to another and the next thing I knew, it was Super Bowl. We were so excited by the close game, let's just say there was dancing in the end zone. We moved out of the trailer park into a fabulous Italian palazzo with topiary and an herb garden. I can't thank Rev. Karl enough. I'm living proof that prayer really works."

Mary Bermanoff, of Dearborn, another ex straight, says she's never been so happy. "I truly am born again. Who knew Jesus could make me a happy lesbian? It was a long painful journey getting here but I'm glad I made it. Twenty years with a man who smelled and never once emptied the recycle bin on the computer was more than I could take. My girlfriend, Janine, actually cooks for me and brings me coffee in bed. Even tells me she loves me. Hallelujah! I no longer have to be drunk to have sex. I actually enjoy it."

The website offers visitors a chance to ask Jesus questions about becoming gay. Apparently email is quicker than prayer. In any event, Jesus answers questions on the Leviticus site. Leviticus offers testimonials from people who succeeded at becoming gay including video by pastors and converts.

Leviticus International promises to save straights from “Hetero Hell.” “Hetero Hell” is the creation of Rick Warren, Pastor of Saddleback Church. It is a place of misery where people believe they are on the path of civility and equality for all but they are really trying to subjugate a whole group of gays to second class status. They live in Hetero Hell because the devil has them believing they are better than others. If you attend one of Leviticus International prayer camps, Jesus Christ will pluck you from Rick Warren’s Hetero Hell and gently drop you into Homo Heaven.

Ask any of the converts on this site about Hetero Hell. Ask the youth groups we host. Ask the elderly who got out just in time. It's living proof that hell is on earth if you're in the hands of the devil. Hetero Hell is its own punishment complete with spousal abuse and spoiled children. Don't let it happen to you. Get on your knees and ask God to put you in Homo Heaven or just send Jesus an email at askjesus@leviticusinternational.com.

Rev. Karl Krutchner, pastor at the Trailer of God in Houston, says that Leviticus has a very high success rate. “I can't take credit for it. It's the power of Jesus, not me.” Why Leviticus International? “Leviticus in the Princess Diana Bible says it's an abomination for a man to lay with a woman. That's my ministry. Saving people from this sinful lifestyle. You should see their faces when they find gay love. It's a divine transformation. You can see God in the eyes. They have never felt this kind of joy. Warms my heart.”

Revision Studios produces feature films. Its latest, “Horror In The Wind,” is about two bio-geneticists who invent an airborne formula that reverses the whole world’s sexual orientation. See the trailer at www.horrorinthewind.com.
