Controversial Comedy “Horror In The Wind” Opens In Santa Fe

Controversial comedy “Horror In The Wind“ opens April 3 at the Film Center in Santa Fe for a limited run. The Film Center is the year-round venue for the Santa Fe Film Festival.

“Frightfully funny” writes Patrick Ivers, Film Critic for Laramie Movie Scope. Jeff Berg, Local IQ Film Critic, says, “Debauchery! Hedonism! Blasphemy! Naked New Mexicans! You will find it all in one very entertaining and ultra low budget New Mexican film.” “Refreshing ... a fun little movie,” writes Jonny Metro of Midnight Media.

Made for under $53,000, sci fi comedy “Horror In The Wind, was recently banned by Allen Theaters of New Mexico. NBC nightly news reported that Allen Theaters refused to screen the locally produced comedy because it is too political. “Horror In The Wind” is about two bio-geneticists whose Formula 4708 reverses the whole world’s sexual orientation.

The movie is set in 2017 when Pat Robertson and James Dobson win the White House with a campaign theme of the “War on Sex.” Robertson spreads an untested sex suppression formula throughout the world. To everyone's shock, Formula 4708 does not suppress sex drive but changes it. The whole world changes in hilarious ways.

“Horror In The Wind” has an all New Mexico cast and crew. Stars Perren Hedderson (“Hero Tomorrow”), Morse Bicknell, Jiji Hise, Courtney Bell and Robert Puryear lead the cast of 50 New Mexico actors. “Horror In The Wind” is now available on DVD. See the trailer at <http://www.horrorinthewind.com>.

“Horror In The Wind“ recently screened to a boisterous sold-out crowd at a benefit for the Las Cruces chapter of Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (“PFLAG”) raising lots of cash for the organization’s Emily Cohen Endowment. PFLAG is an international organization that promotes the health and well-being of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender persons, their families and their friends.

According to “Horror In The Wind” Executive Producer, Dick Weber, “We’re happy to raise money for a good cause.” Revision Studios is equipped to screen anywhere there is electricity and chairs. Weber says, “we can go into an empty warehouse and set up in an hour to screen for two hundred people. Non profits that are hurting because of the current recession are encouraged to contact Revision Studios at 575-682-3240 to discuss a benefit screening. Weber says “we are willing to work with any non-profit group that needs money and there are plenty in this economy.”

“Horror In The Wind” screens April 3, 4, 5 and 8th at 8:15pm. Tickets are General: $9 / Students & Seniors: $8 / SF Film Fest Members: $6. More information at the Santa Fe Film Center’s website <http://www.santafefilmfestival.com>.
